

JOHN SEWELL:

The Shape of the Toronto Suburbs: why they are like they are

A series of 4 lectures about creating a framework for suburban growth in Toronto, 1945 - 2000.

February 6, 7:00 p.m. at the Gladstone Hotel:

THE REAL STORY BEHIND THE SUPERHIGHWAYS, 1930 TO NOW

February 13: Servicing the Fields of Dreams

February 20: Jigging Government Structures to Promote Suburban Growth

February 28: Glorious 905, and the Way Ahead

John Sewell, a member of the Order of Canada, has been engaged in city politics in Toronto since the 1960's - as a community organizer, city councillor, mayor, journalist, activist, writer, housing administrator, and social entrepreneur. This lecture series was sponsored by the Kitty Lundy Memorial Fund, and was presented in November 2005 at Atkinson College, York University.

John Sewell's first lecture will form the inaugural TSA Forum, a regular bi-monthly city event to be held at the Gladstone Hotel, held by the Toronto Society of Architects and sponsored by UrbanSpace. The TSA Forum brings together architects and friends of architecture and the city for conversation, lectures, panel discussions, and exhibits.

TSA FORUM - RECEPTION BEGINS AT 6:00 p.m. GLADSTONE HOTEL
1214 Queen Street West